

GOD LOVES YOU AND WANTS TO YOU TO ACCOMPLISH GREAT THINGS FOR HIS GLORY

GOD IS OFFERING YOU A SECOND CHANCE

Will a new group of believers arise during the Tribulation Period to carry on God's work and usher in a revival? I believe the answer is Yes. The Bible speaks of many coming to faith in the last days. It speaks of God sending two powerful witnesses and sealing 144,000 to carry-out His work. The Bible speaks of individuals resisting the Antichrist, of Tribulation martyrs, and of believers who survive the Tribulation and reign with Jesus on a renewed earth in what is called the Millennial Reign of Christ.

Yes, it will be different. There will be no denominational offices, Christian bookstores, or true TV evangelists. Believers will not (at least for long) meet openly in church buildings. The Church of the Tribulation period will not have vibrant youth or women's programs, comfy accommodations, or well-staffed nurseries. The Tribulation-era Church will be considered an enemy of the State. Oppression will be fierce and violent. Believers will meet covertly, barter and trade food and services to survive, and will often be in survival mode. But like the Church in the book of Acts, the Tribulation-era Church will be blessed and accomplish a mighty work.

COULD GOD BE CALLING YOU TO BE A LEADER IN HIS GREAT WORK?

Could it be that God is calling you to do something significant for Him? Could it be that God desires to use you to serve as a leader in the new, post-Rapture church? Don't be quick to discount the possibility that God may have great plans in mind for you. As for excuses, I'm sure you have some—even a few good ones. I assure you; God has heard them before and from some notable fellows. The prophet Jeremiah, for example, told God he was too young. Abraham and Sarah probably questioned whether or not they were too old. Moses gave God five excuses and even provided the name of someone he felt could do a better job. Peter provided a most poignant excuse when he told Jesus he could not want to use him, for he was a 'sinful man.' It doesn't matter what you've done—what matters is what you are willing to do now?

The bottom line is, God can use anyone, at any time, to do anything. This is a critical point in the history of planet earth. The 'church' is gone. Pastors who taught the Truth and served well are gone. Those who loved and followed the Lord were Raptured and are now in heaven. The Bible speaks of apostasy in the church, false teachers, a coming false religion, and the horrors associated with the coming Antichrist. But the Bible also speaks of Tribulation period saints, of a kind of new remnant Church being born, and of a great revival with millions turning to the Lord. There is a need for new believers in Christ to share in witnessing to (and mentoring) those who will come to faith in this last great revival. Will you honor God by being a part of that important team?
